That comparatively few persons were injured and none killed is due to the fact that a terrific rain storm immediately preceded the tornado, sending into business houses and hallways members of the noonday crowd going to and from lunch.

While the storm which hit this city lost its force just outside the city limits, torrential rains in Ohio river and other eastern Ohio towns worked those whose hearts God touched could heavy damage to property, including transportation systems.

PAUL IN CORINTH.

LESSON TEXT-Acts 18:1-22 GOLDEN TEXT-I determined not to know anything among you, gave Jesus Christ, and him crucified.—I Cor. 2:2. REPERENCE MATERIAL—I Cor. 2:1-5; PRIMARY TOPIC - Tentmaking and

JUNIOR TOPIC - Paul Working and INTERMEDIATE AND BENIOR TOPIC Teaching and Tentmaking in Corinta. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC

The establishment of the church at Corinth is an example of missionary endeavor for all ages. The method employed, which resulted in success then, will result in success now. 1. The True Missionary Method

(vv. 1-3). Paul came to Corinth a stranger is a strange city. He did not have an advence agent to do his advertising: neither did he have his photograph put in the daily paper with sensational announcements, upon his arrival in Corinth. He did not have a trained singer with him; neither did he have his salary guaranteed. His method in gaining a foothold in Corinth was as follows:

1. Finding a home (v. 2). This he found with Aquila and Priscilla, Jews who were recently expelled from Rome by the cruel edict of Claudius. Being Jews, he found natural afflinity with them. 2. He tolled for his daily bread hington.-A group of listeners (v. 3). He was of the same craft thrilling trip back to the days with them, being tentmakers. Every amond Dick and Nick Carter child among the Jews was taught Postmaster General Will H. Hays could gain a livelihood should occacabinet officer related the desion require. One of the rabbis said of the most recent attempted that he who failed to teach his boy mail holdup, which occurred a trade taught him to steal,

II. Preaching in the Synagogue at Corinth (vv. 4-8).

1. Though compelled to toil for living while getting a foothold in Corinth, he did not lose sight of his main work (v. 4). He reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath, persuading the Jews and Greeks. In this respect he was like William Carey, the cobbier. When Carey was asked what his business was he replied that preaching the gospel was his business, but that he cobbled to make expenses. While the missionary should not be above honest toil when necessity arises, he should not allow toll to interfere with the preaching of the gospei,

2. His activity was increased when Silas and Timothy came (v. 5). This resulted from three causes: (1) They brought good news from the church at Thessalonica (I Thess. 3:6). To hear of the steadfastness of those who had confessed Christ under our ministry puts new vigor into our labors. (2) They brought pecuniary gifts from the Macedonian churches (Philip, 4:15; II Cor. 11:9). Being relieved from the necessity of toll for a living, they now could devote more time and energy to the preaching of the gospel. (3) Silas and Timothy became assistants to Paul in the work, thereby strengthening his hands so as to enable him be expected. 4. Paul announces his purpose to turn to the Gentlles (v. 6). Because of their binshphemy and opposition he censed to work among the Jews. There is a time when good judgment causes one to abandon work where efforts have been fruitless, but it is difficult to know just when to do it. 5. He did not go far away (v. 7). He remained sufficiently near that easily find him. It is likewise true that although Christ is obliged to depart from the soul that refuses Him entrance, He lingers with yearning love around that heart. 8. His success (v. 8). Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, was converted. Perhaps the severity of his action in turning away from them proved Crispus to action. Pressure for immediate decision is helpful to some-they realize it is now or never. Many others followed the example of Crispus. Paul varied from his usual custom and baptized Crispus (I Cor.

III. Paul's Vision (vv. 9-11). His experiences since coming to Europe were very trying. He needed enlike the Lord to come at the time of the servant's greatest need. Note the Lord's words to him:

care of A. P. Corley, Edmund, S. C. Ability to stand the strain of work is the privilege of the strong and healthy, but how our hearts ache for the weak and sickly women struggling with their daily rounds of household duties, with backaches, headaches, nervousness and almost every movement brings a new pain. Why will not the mass of letters from women all over this country, which we have been publishing, convince such women that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vege-table Compound will help them just as surely as it did Mrs. Corley?
